

Virginia Pathways Test

Multiple Choice Directions: Underline the letter of the best answer.

- Road construction is paid for by
  - tolls
  - taxes
  - car dealers
  - soccer teams
- The point where the level of land changes and rivers become waterfalls is the _____.
  - natural bridge
  - state capital
  - fall line
  - population density
- A _____ is a group of cities that seem to connect with one another.
  - state
  - pathway
  - construction site
  - megalopolis
- The city of _____ is not part of the Urban Crescent in Virginia.
  - Richmond
  - Petersburg
  - Alexandria
  - Roanoke
- The earliest highways in Virginia were the _____.
  - Native American trails
  - interstates
  - railroads
  - toll roads
- The first road in Virginia were paid for and built by _____.
  - the King of England
  - the Federal government
  - rich plantation owners
  - local governments, for local residents
- Virginia's citizens pay taxes on _____ and _____ to help pay for new roads.
  - train and airplane travel
  - clothes and food
  - personal property and vehicle licensing
  - education and entertainment
- The "pay as you go" policy put a tax on _____.
  - vacations
  - entertainment
  - paychecks
  - gasoline
- Virginia's coast has the largest natural _____.
  - harbor
  - beach
  - sandbar
  - aquarium
- The interstate highways use the _____ of Virginia as their pathways.
  - rivers
  - geography
  - roadmaps
  - explorers

Essay: On the back of this paper, tell how the growth of roads in Virginia helped the state develop.